

B1 INTERMEDIATE ENGLISH

This module helps B1-level English learners practice everyday English by sharing personal opinions, asking and answering questions, and comparing ideas.

Personal Opinions and Viewpoints

Use these expressions to state opinions clearly, give reasons and examples, and agree or disagree politely in conversations.

Expressing Opinions Clearly

Use these expressions to share your ideas and viewpoints clearly.

- I think that...
- I believe...
- In my opinion...
- Personally, I think...
- From my perspective...
- It seems to me that...
- I would say that...
- The way I see it...
- If you ask me...

Sample Conversation:

- Bert: Do you like working from home?
- Ernie: Yeah. I think it's convenient because I save time commuting.
- Bert: I see. I feel it can be lonely sometimes.
- Ernie: That's true. It works best if you have a good schedule.
- Bert: Personally, I think having a separate workspace makes a big difference.
- Ernie: I agree. The way I see it, maintaining a good work-life balance is key!

Giving Reasons and Examples

Use these expressions to explain your reasoning and clarify your ideas with examples.

Giving Reasons

- The reason is that...
- That's the reason why...
- For this reason,...
- It's mainly because...
- It happened because of...

Giving Examples

- To give an example...
- To illustrate...

- A good example is...
- For instance,...
- Take _____ for example...
- One example of this is...
- This happens when...
- To give you an idea...
- Imagine...
- Let's say...
- In particular...
- To show you what I mean...

Sample Conversation:

- Phil: Do you like reading books?
- Lil: Yes, I do. The reason is that reading helps me relax after school.
- Phil: I agree. For example, when I read before bed, I sleep better.
- Lil: Oh, same here. I would say it's my way to escape stress.

Agreeing and Disagreeing Politely

Use these expressions to politely agree or share a different opinion.

Agreeing Politely

- I agree.
- That's true.
- You're right.
- Exactly/Absolutely
- That makes sense.
- I feel the same way.
- I see what you mean.
- That's a good point.
- I agree with you on that.

Disagreeing Politely

- I see what you mean, but...
- That's a good point, but I think...
- I have a different view.
- Maybe we see it differently.
- I understand your point, though...
- I respect your opinion, but...
- I think another way to look at it is...

Sample Conversation:

- Bonnie: I think pizza is the best food ever.
- Clyde: I see what you mean, but I have a different view. For me, sushi is better because it feels lighter.

- Bonnie: That makes sense. I sometimes eat sushi when I want something healthy.

Sample Conversation:

- Felix: I think math is the most important subject in school.
- Oscar: That makes sense, but I would say English is just as important.
- Felix: Hmm, that's true. Without language, we can't communicate well.

Questions and Relevant Responses

Use these expressions to ask questions, give clear answers, ask for clarification, and keep the conversation going.

Asking Questions

- Can you tell me about...?
- What do you think of...?
- How often do you...?
- Why do you like...?
- Which do you prefer, ____ or ____?
- What happened when...?
- How do you usually...?
- What's your opinion about...?
- What kind of ____ do you like?

Giving Relevant Responses

- I think...
- I usually.../Most of the time I...
- I prefer ____ because....
- I really enjoy.../I'm interested in...
- I would say...
- That's why I like...

Asking for Clarification

- Can you repeat that, please?
- Could you say that again?
- What do you mean by ____?
- Do you mean ____?
- Sorry, I didn't catch that.

Asking Follow-up Questions

- Really? Can you tell me more?
- What happened next?
- Why do you think so?
- What did you do after that?
- Did you enjoy it? Why or why not?
- Can you explain further?

Sample Conversation:

- Jules: What do you usually do after school?
- Vincent: I usually watch videos online.
- Jules: Really? Can you tell me more?
- Vincent: Well, I watch cooking videos. Last week I tried a pasta recipe.
- Jules: Sounds interesting! How did it turn out?
- Vincent: It was delicious! My family really enjoyed it.
- Jules: Lucky them! Maybe you can cook for me next time.

Comparisons and Contrasts

Use these expressions to talk about how ideas, people, or objects are similar or different.

To Compare (show similarity)

- Both ____ and ____
- Similarly,...
- Also.../As well as...
- The same as...
- Just like...
- In the same way,...

To Contrast (show difference)

- But.../However...
- On the other hand,...
- Unlike...
- Different from...
- While...
- Although.../Even though...
- In contrast,...

Sample Conversation:

- Joey: I'm really into reading, both novels and comics are super fun.
- Chandler: That's cool! I also like stories, but I usually watch movies instead.
- Joey: Yeah, I get that. I prefer reading at home, while you like going to the cinema.
- Chandler: True, but honestly, both are great ways to relax.

Useful Adjectives

Use these adjectives to describe how two or more things are alike or different.

Size and Shape

- big/small

Grammar Tip: Using Comparatives

- For one-syllable adjectives, add -er + than (e.g., taller than)
- For two-syllable or longer adjectives, use more + adjective + than (e.g., more interesting than)

Sample Conversation:

- Abi: Online classes are more flexible than face-to-face classes.
- Ilana: True, but face-to-face classes are more interactive.
- Abi: Yeah, both types are useful, but I prefer online since I can save time.
- Ilana: I get that. For me, going to campus feels more motivating
